

Advancement

Advancement to a more responsible position will be based on performance and ability to meet job requirements. Notification of positions openings may be posted to all employees as appropriate. Consideration will be given to the promotion of a qualified employee when filling a vacant position. Promotion will be based upon an evaluation of past performance and capacity to assume additional responsibility.