

Compensation

To the best of its ability, the school will pay salaries and provide other benefits which are just compensation for the work, responsibility, and performance. Further, it seeks to establish comparable wages for similar work throughout the civic community.

There will be an annual review of the salaries and an annual cost of living increase may be approved by administration