

Partisan Political Activities

In fulfilling the responsibility to provide moral guidance on political issues, the Church does not engage in partisan political activity. Therefore, diocesan officials and agencies, clergy, religious, parish councils, parish organizations, and other Church affiliates, when acting in an official capacity, are to avoid:

- Endorsing or opposing political candidates or parties, or actively engaging in political campaigns for or against any candidate or party.